

In Gratitude: September 2022

“This shift in our surroundings is an invitation to lean into the shift that is occurring within each of us, too.” Girl and Her Moon

Seasons are changing, I can feel it in the morning air. I read this newsletter from Girl and Her Moon and really enjoyed it's message. "September brings a beautiful transition of the Earth cycles. Fall equinox for the Northern Hemisphere, and Spring Equinox for the Southern. September 22, 2022 at 8:03pm central time, this day represents the balance of light and dark, day and night, outward and inward, and marks a coming together point in the Earth's cycles before she shifts directions."

Are Govvi tabs registered with the EPA?

Yes, this is required in order to sell a fuel-additive in the United States. This product has been registered since 2009. It took a lot of time and money to get through the registration process, because unlike other fuel additives that can be registered by submitting a list of ingredients, the EPA had never seen a catalyst-type product before, so it had to undergo a lot of scrutiny to get registered.

What makes the Govvi tablets unique, as compared to fuel additives you see at the automotive stores?

These products are a completely different technology than the GOVVI tablet. The obvious first difference is the size and weight. Other products are typically in liquid form, and they come in 8-12 oz. bottles. Our product is a 1-gram solid catalyst that works completely differently. The other additives are known as fuel "conditioners" that, in order to get through EPA-registration, have to contain one or more of five ingredients that are already found in fuel. So they are simply adding more of what is already found in fuel, such as sulfur, etc. The GOVVI tablet is a catalyst that can do a tremendous amount to the chemistry with a very small amount of product. It is a very active product that changes the process of the burn in the combustion chamber. Ordinary fuel additives do not do that.

How do Govvi tablets actually work?

What a catalyst does is it lowers the ignition temperature of the air/fuel mixture. This means the fuel starts burning earlier and it sustains for a longer period. If you can start burning earlier and burn for a longer period of time in the combustion chamber, you are going to get more energy out of the fuel, and more of the fuel will be burned efficiently, as opposed to inefficiently, which is essentially your car's emissions. The goal is to get as close to a burn rate of 100% as possible, and with the GOVVI tablet, the consumer is able to get their vehicle's fuel burn rate very close to 100%. This results in more energy, better mileage, and less emissions (pollution) coming out of the tailpipe. So the product gives your vehicle a more complete burn.

"For the Northern Hemisphere the September Equinox represents the cycle into Autumn or Fall, and its natural evolution into Winter. This is our shedding. Our letting go. Just as we witness Mother Earth so courageously let go of all she has become over the last 6 months, we are being asked to trust just as deep, have faith just as wide, that when we let go, we do so that we may be reborn once again when the time is right, as a new person.

The quote 'You cannot re-create yourself until you uncreate yourself' holds strength here. We let go because we know that we cannot add to what is already full. We empty our hands knowing that it is only then we may receive. We empty our minds and become the students, the explorers, the pathfinder who knows each moment of Life is its greatest teacher.

We let go in a full surrender that we are held, and just like the Earth, will bloom again."

Set new intentions for the new month and embody the new version of you. Do something each day that your best future self will thank you for.

"This shift in our surroundings is an invitation to lean into the shift that is occurring within each of us, too." Girl and Her Moon

In full appreciation of you- Happy Fall!
