In Gratitude: MARCH 2022 Events & Specials

The energy has shifted, and we have a new moon in Pisces! This brings us a wave of inspiration and a sense of greater purpose- not to mention tastes of spring along the way.

Self-care is the new well-care!

Have you booked a service with us yet? We opened our Burnsville location to have a safe and healing space for you. This is really where my passion lies- helping others to step into their power and live authentically as your True Self. Many times, we need a little self-care to find our voice. We are here to help guide you. We are planning our own Renewal break from March 24th through April 10th and will be closed during this time. Make sure you plan accordingly and get those self-care appointments penciled in. Send me a text, reply to this email or give me a call to book your private appointment.
